MONET'S NEWTOWN STAKES.

BEATS JACK RATLIN BY THREE LENGTHS ON A HEAVY TRACK.

Workman, Jacquin, De Reszke, Martha Gorman and Silver Dream Win the Other Events at Jamaica Before a Big Crowd-Three Favorites Win.

The warm, pleasant weather of yesterday afternoon served to draw racing enthusiasts o the Jamaica track in droves. More than illed the horses to the post for the first race, the private boxes and the clubhouse being cell populated. Form was in pretty good running order, although the track was slow, as three favorites and two second choices

The Newtown Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at six furlongs, was scratched down to five starters, J. L. McGinnis's Monet ruling favorite at 13 to 5, with all the others heavily supported. The start was poor, Jack Ratlin, 16 to 5, and The Musketeer, 6 to 1. getting several lengths the worst of it. rushed The Musketeer to the front, where he remained, with Monet second, to the head the stretch. Then Burns let Monet down, and he won easily by three lengths, while ack Ratlin got up in time to take the place from The Musketeer by a nose. The time was 1:17 2-5.

Dave Johnson's Jacquin, played down to 9 to 5, experienced no trouble in winning the handicap for three-year-olds at six fur-longs. Alforten, the favorite, was away poorly, while Oriskany, Andrew Mack and Jacquin raced out in front close together to Fuller then drew away with Jacquin, who beat Andrew Mack by a length nd a half. The latter, who was short of work, took second money from Alforten by lengths. Tomcod was a head back.

The time was 1:17 1-5.
Charley Dwyer's Workman, 11 to 5 favorite, captured the first race, for two-year-olds, at five furlongs, leading all the way and having six lengths over Frank Farrell's First Born, to to 1; P. S. P. Randolph's Delaval, 6 to 1, unning third, a length and a half back and a head before Sydney Paget's Tramotor. Reszke, who went back to 4 to 1, made all the running in the third race, at a mile and seventy yards, winning by a length from Go Between, played down to fours. Nine Spot, 8 to 1, was a poor third, with Keynote, the favorite, badly beaten from the Martha Gorman, by Sir Dixon-Sallie McClelland, 12 to 1, afforded much surprise by taking the fifth race, for two-year-old fillies, at four and a half furlongs. She got a clever ride from Hildebrand and beat Sufferance, the second choice, by two lengths. Sydney Paget's Pink Garter, 6 to 5 favorite, was a poor third. Carrie Jones, a good thing, was pinched off at the start.

The last race, at six furlongs, resulted in a smashing finish between Silver Dream, to 5 favorite, and Funny Side, 9 to 5, second choice. The latter had a lead of two lengths when she reached the turn, but Shaw challenged with Silver Dream, who won by a nose. Palette was third, a dozen lengths PRINCETON INTERCLASS GAMES. Eisele, a Freshman, Wins Two Mile Rus -Seniors Score Most Points.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 29.-The annua interclass games were held here on University Field this afternoon. The meet was closely contested and was won by the seniors with total of 54% points. The sophomores came second with 40 points. The feature of the meet was the mile, in which Williams and Chapin were entered. Williams has not been running well this spring and it was though that he would not be in form to-day but the former two-mile champion surprised his best friends. Up to the last lap he did not seem to have a chance but he got out a pocket and outsprinted Chapin in the stretch. Eisele a sophomore, won the two-mile race with ease. Trainer Robinson expects Eisele to do something in the intercollegiates.

GOLF.

Travis and Moller Off for Sandwich-College Matches To-day. American wolf halls and persimmon heads from this country have gained a good repu-tation on the links of Scotland and England, and now some of our amateurs are going over to show how Americans handle the of the game. W. J. Travis and John Moller Jr., accompanied by their wives, sailed on the first trip of the Arabic yesterday, and E. M. Byers sails to-day. F. Oden Horstman of the Chevy Chase club sailed some time ago. Only some personal friends of the two golfers to go yesterday were at the steamer. Travis, who played at Sandwich when he was abroad two years ago, said that he thought the links the very best next to Prest-He will play in the amateur championship the week of May 30, but he had made no plans regarding the open, to be played on the same course June 8 and 9 "My trip is solely for pleasure and a rest from business," said the American golf champion. "I expect to be back the last

John Moller, Jr., said that while he would play in the amateur for the experience, he thought that what he would enjoy the most would be the meeting of the great exponents would be the meeting of the great exponents of golf in the open championship. After the Sandwich meetings, Moller said, the party would make a tour of many of the links in an automobile. He had not fixed the time for his return and it was possible, in his opinion, that the Americans would take part in the International golf at Versailles on June 16, 17 and 18.

Simeon Ford, who is a member of the Apawamis Golf Club, also sailed on the Arabic.

Both the Princeton and Columbia teams will play matches to-day, the first at Baltus-rol, where the summer greens will be used for the first time, and the New Yorkers at Englewood. So far this season Princeton has beaten the Richmond county team and Columbia has won from the Westchester Golf Club, but both the college teams will be up against stronger timber to-day. Yale has also a match scheduled at the Hartford Golf Club. There are a good many local competitions listed, although there are no open competitions on and the general opening does not take place until next Saturday.

RACING ON OTHER TRACKS.

At Nashville. NASHVILLE, April 29.—There was a large attendance at Cumberland Park to-day. The weather was bright, the track in much better condition than for several days and the sport excellent. Gold Hoels, Tom Hayes's World's Fair Handleap candidate, was expected to make his first 1904 appearance in the Citizens' Handleap to-morrow, but to-day his owner decided not to start him, as the track has been in such bad coudition during the past week that it has been impossible to put

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

L. V. BELL BIDS UP AND BUYS THE COLT MONET.

Retaliates for Owner McGinnis's Run Up of Collector Jessup on Wednesday -The Latter Claims Jack Ratlin Johnson a Heavy Winner on Jacquin.

Turn about is fair play in selling races, although sometimes it causes no end of ill feeling. On Wednesday Louis V. Bell's Collector Jessup won the Columbus Selling Stakes and was bid up and bought by J. L. McGinnis for $3,200. McGinnis ran second on that occasion with Monet, so that under the rules governing selling races he received half the amount of the run up above the entered selling price, $1,600. In other words, he actually paid $2,400 for Collector Jessup, and in the opinion of turimen he got a bargain. But J. H. McCormick, the trainer of Mr Bell's horses, was decidedly warm under the collar, and it was freely predicted that both McCormick and his employer would proceed to camp on the trail of McGinnis

The first chance to square accounts, therefore, presented itself yesterday. McGinnis started Monet in the Newtown Selling Stakes, entering him to be sold for $2,000. The Ben Strome colt won, and when Judge McDowell offered him at auction McCormick began bidding. The price was boosted until $3,800 was reached, when McGinnis refused to protect the colt with another $5 bid, so he was knocked down to McCormick then and there. Half of the run up, $900, went to P. J. Gorman man, owner of Jack Ratlin, who ran second, but it was poor consolation for Gorman, as McGinnis turned around and claimed Jack Ratlin. The next time L. V. Bell wins a race of this kind, it will be interesting to note McGinnis's action. McCormick has never made a practice of bidding up the winners of selling races, but it is safe to say that he has his war paint on for the present at least.

Andrew Mack came to the track yesterday to see the horse named for him by Frank Farrell run in the second event. Mr. Farrell did not think that his Charaxus colt could win because of the condition of the track, and so advised the actor not to bet heavily. Mack consequently contented himself with a modest wager straight and third. The colt was short of work but ran a fine race under the circumstances. Davy Johnson won a pile of money on his colt Jacquin, who took Andrew Mack's measure. The opening price was 5 to 2, but when Johnson and his friends got through the colt was practically an equal favorite with Alforten. At the weights Alforten looked to have such a pull that the wise men came to the track ready to accept any price against him. He opened at even money, but when the money began pouring in on Jacquin and Tomcod, who was backed down to eights, Alforten's price went back to 17 to 10. At that, nobody knows what Alforten would have done if Burns had not fallen asleep at the post and then taken the overland route.

Charley Dwyer cleaned up handsomely with his Fatherless colt, Workman, who won the first race. This colt has shown marked improvement with every race, and made a spreadeagle of it yesterday. All Truebel, his jockey, had to do, was to sit perfectly still and keep the youngster's head straight. Frank Farrell's First Born, by Locohatchee-Happy Day, was practically unbacked and surprised everybody. He got a splendid ride from little Joe Robertson, who followed Trainer Weir's instructions to the letter. There was a beaten path close to the inside rail and Robertson was ordered to keep as near to it as possible, also hugging the rail into the stretch. Robertson also used his whip when it came down to a drive in the most effective style. The boy seems to be a comer.
Higgins rode his first winner of the year on a local track when he piloted De Reszke to victory in the third event. He knew that he had a good horse under him and never overexerted himself. A bundle of coin was bet on Go Between, and Crimmins put up a strong fluish for a boy of his weight and inches, but De Reszke and Higgins held him safe.

The Musketeer was not in a docile mood when Shaw climbed on his back in the pad-dock for the Newtown Stakes. When the Masetto borse got to the paddock gate he stuck his toes in the ground and refused to budge. Shaw dismounted, and a couple of stable hands literally dragged the horse onto the track, where Shaw got back into the saddle. The Musketeer ran a good race, but he is not the sprinter that he was. He was beaten at the head of the stretch. The Newtown Stakes, by the way, was the hottest betopened favorite at 8 to 5, a majority of the smart bettors could not see him at all and looked elsewhere for the winner. Jack Ratlin, a well known heavy track performer, was caught at 4 to 1 and hammered down to 16 to 5. Joe Ullman's Foxy Kane was also in demand at 16 to 5, while Gold Dome was played down to fours. Monet went back to 13 to 5, but these odds were snapped up at the last moment by Jack McGinnis and some of his clubhouse clients.

Carrie Jones, a racy looking filly by Requital-Intermission, running in the name of Bookmaker Jack McDonald and trained by Frank Weir, was well backed to win the fifth race, her price being lowered from tens to sevens. But she experienced poor racing luck. Sydney Paget's Pink Garter, the favor-ite, was turned over to W. L. Oliver after the race, terms of the transfer not made public. George Odom received an offer yesterday to take a mount in the Kentucky Derby, to b E. R. Thomas said yesterday that if the weather continues warm and the track is good, he will probably start the $60,000 Hermis in the Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park next Thursday. F. R. Hitchcock also said that he would probably send Grey Frian to the post.

Starter Cassidy suspended Higgins for three days yesterday. There were the usual delays at the post, although the send-offs, as a rule, were an improvement over those of Thursday.
It is rumored that John J. Ryan, the "get rich quick" plunger, has been hard hit of late. He has not been seen at Jamaica for several days and his friends said yesterday that he had gone West to attend to some private business.

private business.

Two howling swells, armed with heavy canes, rolled out of the track gates after the last race yesterday. They had been looking through the bottoms of numerous glasses during the afternoon and had not been able to cash a bet.
"Bah jove!" ejaculated one of them as he bumped into an iron post. "This is beastly

I had six sure winners, doncherknow, and "Never mind, old chappie," said the other one, as he fell over a wooden box." "We've had a glorious time, and I've got enough left to go to Del's. Then they were tipped over by the mob in the rush for the cars and finally lost the last train while brushing the dirt from their Jockey Cochran, who is able to ride at 97 pounds, has shown much of his old-time skill so far and his services are in demand.

Close Fight for First Place in Tourney at Cambridge Springs.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., April 29.-The fourth round of the international chess mas ters' tournament was played at the Hotel Rider in this city to-day, and at the close of play Lasker and Marshall had taken the lead over Janowski and Mieses by half a point. As Janowski had left his game against Hodges unfinished, a game which will be surely won by the Parisian when resumed, next Wednesday, Janowski is really the leader. He has three straight wins to his credit and an adjourned game in hand. Mieses and leichmann now occupy jointly the fourth and fifth places, while Pillsbury comes sixth on the list.

In to-day's play Showalter's fine victory over the Russian champion, Tschigorin, takes the first place. Fox, too, who celetakes the first place. Fox, too, who celebrated his birthday to-day, came in for a lot of praise for having made Champion Lasker look very troubled at one stage of the game, which, according to the opinion of many, Fox ought to have won. Napier fell a prey to the dashing attack of the Englishman Lawrence. Marshall vanquished Mieses in fine style, while Hodges put up an excellent fight against Janowski. The results in detail follow:

AUTO BOAT RACING AT MONACO. Trefle a Quatre Makes Fast Time and Wins Races.

The closing days of the motor boat racing at Monaco were just as interesting as the first three days, and were fortunately devoid of the sensational features that marked the third day, when the Parisienne II. caught fire. The most important race on the fourth day of the meeting was a handicap race for speed launches. La Rapée II. was the first sent off. She had a big start. The next one started was the Mercedes I., 14 minutes and 30 seconds later. The Dubonnet started minute after the Mercedes, then the Princesse Elizabeth, 2 minutes and 30 seconds later: La Rapée III., 10 minutes later, and then the Lutece and Trèfle à Quatre, 2 minthen the Lutèce and Trètle à Quatre, 2 minutes and 30 seconds afterward. This race was won by Mercedes I. This boat beat La Rapée III. by 242-5 seconds, and then came the Princesse Elizabeth, Lutece, Dubonnet, La Rapee II. and Trèfle à Quatre. The latter covered the course at the rate of 17½ knots an hour.

The next day there was a 100 kilometre handicap for speed craft and the Trèfle à Quatre was again the scratch boat. She had to give so much start that the first boat had gained one lap, or eight miles, before she was sent off. She soon overhauled the others, but could not quite catch the Princesse Elizabeth, and was beaten by 25 seconds. The onds.

The last day of the meeting was devoted to short distance races. The Trèfie à Quatre The last day of the meeting was devoted to short distance races. The Trèfe à Quatre did a kilometre in 4 minutes 17 3-5 seconds and a knot in 2 minutes 53 3-5 seconds. This is better than 20 knots, or 23 miles an hour. The Lutèce was only 9 seconds behind the winner, and her speed was close to 20 knots.

Procession This Afternoon Through the Park and Along Riverside Drive.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the first parade of motor cars under the auspices of the Automobile Club of America is to be held. All the prominent city officials have been invited to be guests and ride in cars at the head of the procession. Mayor McClellan was to have headed the parade, but owing to another headed the parade, but owing to another engagement he will join the parade somewhere along the route and return to the clubhouse at Fifty-eighth street and Fifth avenue to review it from there when it passes on its return to disband.

The parade will be divided into eight divisions, the first division being that of the grand marshal and President W. E. Scarritt and the cars containing the guests.

The first seven sections will proceed through the east drive of the Park as far as McJown's Pass Tavern bearing westward back to the Seventy-second street exit, thence to Riverside Drive. When the parade reaches Stant's Tomb the first section will make a wide turn and retrace the route on the west side of the drive, down Seventy-second street, through West End avenue, through Seventieth street via Broadway to Fifty-ninth street and Fifth avenue, continuing down Fifth avenue to Madison Square, where the parade will disband.

RECORD AUTO TRIP.

F. S. Edge Runs From Land's End to John o' Groat's and Back Without a Stop.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, April 29.-F. S. Edge, who set out last Monday from Land's End, Corn-wall, with a companion, in an attempt to run an automobile 2,000 miles without stopping he and his companion alternating every eight hours at the lever, finished his run at eight hours at the lever, finished his run at 4:15 this afternoon. Edge accomplished his feat, for his engines did not stop turning during the whole 2,000 miles, to John of Jroat's in the north of Scotland and most of the way back.

Mr. Edge had expected to make the run in 100 hours and arrived at John of Jroat's last Tuesday, having made the run thither—1,039 miles—in thirty-nine hours. Trouble with his tires delayed his return trip.

HEWITT OUT OF AUTO RACE.

Cars Will Not Report on Monday-Tests Late in the Week.

It was announced yesterday that Peter Cooper Hewitt, who entered a new and ex-perimental car of his own design for the perimental car of his own design for the American team in the international auto cup race, had withdrawn his entry, forfeiting the entry fee. No reason was given for Mr. Hewitt's action, but it is understood that his car did not meet all his expectations.

Monday was the day set for the cars to meport to the race committee of the Automobile Club of America, but it was learned yesterday from Dave H. Morris, chairman of the committee, that they will not do so, it was expected, also, that the cars would have a practical road test on Long Island on Monday or Tuesday, but Mr. Morris said yesterday that there will be no tests before the latter part of next week.

Chicagoans Organizing a Racquet Club. CRICAGO, April 29.-Rich residents of Chicago are organizing a racquet club to be modelled after the famous New York Racquet Club, and it is to be housed in a handsome $1,000,000 building, at 10 and 12 handsome $1,000,000 building, at 10 and 12 Madison street, just around the corner from the Chicago Athletic Club. It is understood that Harold McCormick and Laurence Heyworth are among the principals to the deal by which the property was acquired.
The new structure, which probably will be named the "Racquet Club," is at present planned to be fourteen stories high.

The Chicago organization is to bave 300 members, who will pay annual dues of $300 thus insuring to the club a fixed income of $80,000 annually from the beginning.

M'GINNITY AND WILLIS HAVE TUSSLE, NEW YORKS WINNING.

Close Game Between McGraw's Men and the Bostons-The Cincinnati Reds Defeat St. Louis in a Hard Fought Battle-Other Contests Postponed

The New York Nationals resumed play vesterday and won from the Bostons by one run. The same margin of victory gave Cincinnati a game in St. Louis. The contests in Brooklyn and Pittsburg were postponed on account of wet grounds. The re sulta:

New York, 2: Boston, 1. Cincinnati, 4; St. Louis, 8. STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

NEW YORK (N. L.), 2; BOSTON (N. L.), 1. Victor Willis of Boston and Joseph McGin-nity of New York fought it out from rubber to plate at the Polo Grounds yesterday. Both pitched very effectively, Willis working his drop and speed with good results, and McGinnity using his underhand ball and cross fire and "mixing them up." The pitchers were more than half the battle which the New Yorks won by a score of The infield was in pretty good condition plichers were more than half the battle, which the New Yorks won by a score of 2 to 1.

The infield was in pretty good condition after the soaking it has had, but there was some soft and slippery going in the outfield, and a ball soon became dead that struck out there. The game was closer than it was exciting. There was not enough action to stir up things much, this on account of the light batting. The fielding was good under the circumstances—except that Dahlen messed two easy ground hits—the outfielders getting through the mire very well for fly balls.

Mertes and McCormick sild into each other chasing a fly put up by the first Boston batter, Geier. Mertes wrapped his hooks around the ball, but the collision caused him to drop it and go sprawling. Geler kept on to second on the muff. He did not attain his goal. Before going to the add of his fallen comrade McCormick snatched up the ball and shrew it to Gilbert ahead of Geier—a quick witted play.

The New Yorks gathered in one of their scanty collection of counts in the first inning. Browne bunted, and Delehanty threw the ball over Tenney's head. Browne went to third, and from there the handy Devlin scored him with a single to left field. After this, in the same inning, the New Yorks had men on second and third and only one out. Willist then put the down break on the ball, struck out McCormick and Dablen lifted a fly.

In the second inning Abbaticchio hit right in front of the plate, the ball stuck in the mud, and all Warner had to do was to pick it up and tag the batter. In the same inning. Warner singled after Gilbert had accomplished the first of three strike-outs, but McGinnity hit into a double play.

Mora's two-bagger to left, netted a run for Boston in the third inning. Warner threw to bases faultlessly and he turned leier back in the third inning after jeier had reached first by virtue of Willis being thrown out at third. Willis and a giraffe slide about equally well, so it was easy for Devlin to put the ball on Willis. In the fourth inning the potent

Charles Smith and John Flaschermann, ball-players; William Metler and Frank Hughes, score card sellers, and W. P. He said the playing of baseball at Ridgewood Park did not in any way disturb churchgoers, and as the grounds were free and any one could get inside and see the game, and obtain a seat, he did not see any violation of the law in the management charging for "reserved seats," and he, therefore, discharged the men.

CRIPPS GETS A MATCH. Australian Middleweight Champion May

Fight Tommy Ryan on Pacific Coast. According to a despatch which Sam Fitz-patrick, manager of Arthur Cripps, received

According to a despatch which sam fitz-patrick, manager of Arthur Cripps, received yesterday, the Australian middleweight champion has secured a match in that city. Cripps urges Fitzpatrick to leave New York at once for the Pacific Coast. Sam, however, cannot go until the latter part of next week, as he has some private business to attend to here.

When Cripps left town last Saturday Fitzpatrick gave him a letter of introduction to Harry Corbett. The latter is a personal friend of Fitzpatrick and in all probability has secured Tommy Ryan to meet the Antipodean. Such a bout, many believe, would be a big grawing card in view of the international flavor of the encounter. It is many years since an international battle was decided in California. Fitzpatrick said to THE Sex reporter last night that the bout is to take place before the Yosemite A. C. and the date may be June if, which is the night before the Jeffries-Munroe scrap. Cripps in his two bouts in the East has done good work and there are many who believe that he will give Ryan the mill of his career and come near whipping him at that.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The Washingtons again came within an ace of winning their first game of the season to-day. Errors, a base on balls and a couple of timely singles were responsible for all of Boston's runs, while the Washingtons scored two of their runs by consecutive safe hitting. The game was called at the beginning of the sixth inning because of rain. The score:
